3 POST OFFICES IN COUNTY WILL CLOSE APRIL 30

Three of Adams County's fourth class post offices, at Flora Dale, Guernsey and Table Rock, are to be closed April 30 according to word received by the postmasters from the district operations manager of the postal department at Harrisburg. It is believed that the mail will be delivered, starting May 1, by Biglerville rural route carriers.

The order will discontinue post offices that have been in existence for nearly a century. The Flora Dale post office was established in 1861, and it is believed that the Table Rock and Guernsey post offices came into existence at the same time.

A number of patrons of the upper end post offices were reported today to have called Congressman S. Walter Stauffer and Postmaster General Summerfield to protest the closing.

Most complaints were to the effect that the closing of the post offices will work a hardship on the rural people of the area who did most of their business with the fourth class offices because the hours were more convenient to them. Larger post offices are closed in the evenings, while the smaller post offices conduct most of their work.

Much Rural Work

Clair Grim, postmaster at Table Rock, said four-fifths of the post office work there was with rural people and one-fifth with residents of Table Rock.

Flora Dale's postmistress, Miss Alice Black, who has held the post since 1945, was due to retire August 31. Her sister, Miss Anna Black, had been postmistress from 1938 to 1945. Before that Mrs. Mary Hoffman was the postmistress for a number of years.

At Table Rock Clair Grim has been postmaster since 1939. Before him were George Lower, R. B. Myers and Samuel Faber, grandfather of Fred Faber, of Gettysburg.

Mrs. Selma Roberts is postmistress at Guernsey, a post she has held for three years. Prior to her Mrs. Anna Eckert was the postmistress.

Cleaning Fluid Cause Of Death

Identification of a common cleaning fluid, carbon tetrachloride, as the agent responsible for the death of a Greenacres electrician and for the serious illness of a co-worker points up the dangerous qualities of this colorless fluid.

The death Tuesday morning of Arno M. Kuykendall, 28-year-old Greenacres father of three little children and native of Gettysburg, was attributed directly to "carbon tetrachloride intoxication" by Dr. Robert Solomon, pathologist at Baltimore's Mt. Sinai Hospital.

Meanwhile hospital physicians and nurses engaged in a round-the-clock effort to save the life of the co-worker, Edward G. Strickler of Chambersburg.

FIRE DAMAGES "DISTELFINK"

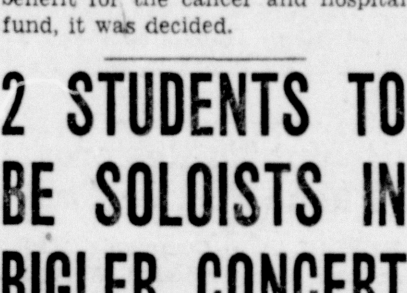

Damage was listed as "extensive" when fire broke out in the Distelfink ice cream establishment, five miles north of here along the Harrisburg Rd. at Shriver's Corner.

No estimates were given immediately as to the loss, but David E. Sandoe, Biglerville, the proprietor, said the short circuit which caused the fire had caused considerable damage to stoves and other equipment in the structure. The loss is covered by insurance and the amount of loss was to be determined after Fire Chief Donald W. McSherry and the insurance agent have completed estimates.

The Distelfink was vacant at the time of the fire. Sandoe was in a Biglerville barber shop when word reached him there that a tourist, halting for a cup of coffee, found fire blazing in the structure.

Gettysburg firemen quickly extinguished the flames.

General And Mrs. Wilbur R. McReynolds, Former Residents Of Gettysburg, Shot To Death By Their French House Guest

General McReynolds was the assistant professor of Military science and tactics at Gettysburg College, 1928-1932. Both he and Mrs. McReynolds have a number of friends here and were frequent visitors to Gettysburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Brig. Gen. Wilbur R. McReynolds, 64, (Ret.) and his wife, Faye, were shot to death in their home in the exclusive Snell Isle residential section here Wednesday night and a French war hero was arrested shortly afterward.

Nine shots were fired from a .22 caliber pistol, five striking the retired Army general and two hitting his wife, police said.

A man identified as Maurice M. Chavigny, 44, of Paris, who had lived at the McReynolds home since Thanksgiving, was arrested after a three-mile chase.

Neighbors called police when they heard the shots. As they arrived, police said, they saw Chavigny leaving the scene in the general's car. They gave chase and fired at the car several times, finally catching Chavigny 15 minutes later after a pursuit across the city.

Admits Slayings

Chavigny was dressed nattily in a United Nations uniform and sporting five rows of colorful ribbons and 17 decorations. He confessed to the slaying after intensive grilling by detectives.

Chavigny orally admitted the shooting and he gave this account:

He was here on a tourist's visa, wanted to leave and planned to buy a bicycle and a gun, ride off and kill himself. He bought the gun and bicycle after an argument yesterday, returned to the McReynolds home, put on his United Nations uniform and told Mrs. McReynolds he was leaving.

She argued with him and he shot her. McReynolds came after him and he killed the retired general, got into the car and drove away.

Lt. Sidney Hillard said Chavigny was crying when he was caught. Officers said they found the murder weapon in the car Chavigny was driving.

The body of McReynolds, clad in walking shorts and a T-shirt, was found sprawled in a pool of blood in the living room of his home and Mrs. McReynolds, 60, was lying in the kitchen dressed in T-shirt and pants.

Developed C Ration

McReynolds was the developer of the C ration used by armed forces during World War II and also developed the K ration and (Continued On Page 3)

ELIAS CHURCH IN EMMITSBURG IS RENOVATED

The first of a series of services in connection with the observance of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of Emmitsburg will be held by Elias Evangelical Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, on Palm Sunday, April 14. It will be known as the service of rededication of the church following a complete renovation of the interior of the edifice.

The Elias congregation was established in 1797 in Emmitsburg and with the Reformed congregation built the present stone structure. It had worshipped about three miles southeast of Emmitsburg for about 40 years prior to that time. Complete Renovation
During recent weeks the entire church has been replastered and painted. The pews, altars and floors have been refinished.

New open stairways to the choir loft and galleries have been erected and will be finished with wrought iron railings. The choir loft has been extended six feet. An entire new lighting system has been installed with cove and flush ceiling lights. The altar area has been extended in width and new carpet will be laid in the aisles and chancel area.

The anniversary rededication services will include the dedicatory sermon by the Rev. J. Frank Fife, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland, at the 10:30 a.m. service and a cantata by the choir with remarks by pastors of churches of Emmitsburg in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Harold E. Swope, 46, Abbotstown, might have beaten Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz and Special Deputy Roscoe Shindler, Gettysburg R. 2, back to Gettysburg after they took Swope to the Federal Narcotics Hospital at Lexington, Kentucky.

Swope had been in the Adams County jail from February 10 until Monday on a surety of the peace charge. When he went before the Adams County court last month it was decided that the sheriff would take him to the federal hospital for treatment.

Monday evening at 6 o'clock the sheriff and deputy turned Swope over to hospital authorities and then started back to Gettysburg. They stayed overnight Monday in Lexington at a motel and then continued on Tuesday arriving home Wednesday.

Upon their return they found that Swope had apparently stayed overnight at the Lexington hospital and then left. He wired for funds from Cincinnati. State police here Tuesday received word Swope had been taken into custody by Cincinnati police, but no details were given.

next two years if the Republican legislature should decide to do nothing more about taxes.

House Speaker W. Stuart Helm (R-Armstrong) freely predicts the governor will sign the bill, contending a veto would mean a tax fight that could drag the legislature to the proportions of the 17-month marathon of the 1955 session.

Helm also said a veto would mean the legislature would discard new enforcement provisions adopted by the House last night as part of a bipartisan agreement.

Legislature In Recess

These amendments are separate from those on the governor's desk. They are the result of a compromise session between Leader and GOP and Democratic legislative leaders last Sunday night.

They are confined principally to enforcement and make no changes in the industrial exemptions previously passed by the Republican legislature.

The House and Senate adjourned until next week.

Other Developments

Other legislative developments: Budget request — The House passed 166-5 and sent to the Senate a measure requiring the budget secretary to send data on departmental budget requests to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees.

Pardon Board Probe—Joseph H. Miller of the Philadelphia Inquirer refused to identify the source of a news story when called to testify before a legislative committee probing the operations of the State Pardon Board.

He stood on what he termed a reporter's immunity against being forced to disclose news sources. His story dealt with speculation on a possible Philadelphia judgeship appointment which he linked indirectly to the current investigation.

In 1937 he attended the Command and General Staff School at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and in 1940 became director of training for the Quartermaster Corps.

He majored in education at Ohio State University where he was active in athletics. An artist, he also was in teaching and playground work for a time.

Chavigny was born in 1913, orphaned by World War I and three times was awarded the French Croix de Guerre. He won a three palms decoration while serving with a French battalion in Korea.

Chavigny saw service in France, Germany and Austria, and at one time was in the Foreign Legion.

Wounded In Korea
In 1952 he was seriously wounded in Korea and underwent treatment in an American Army hospital in Tokyo. He was evacuated and discharged in Paris but later volunteered to return to Korea.

On a boat en route to the Far East, he met Mrs. McReynolds, who was going to join her husband at Saigon.

He had come here at the McReynoldses' invitation and was on a tourist's visa.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
Warren To Use Car For Patrolling Roads: A new coupe, similar to eight other automobiles being used by state highway patrolmen
at other substations of Troop A,
has been sent to the local substation
for use of Corporal J. G.
Warren, substation commander.
The automobile will be used for general patrol work. Corporal Warren has turned his motorcycle and will use the car exclusively.

A number of the cars have been placed in use by patrolmen in many sections of the state who have used them to advantage in running down motorcade violators, being less conspicuous in the automobiles than mounted on a motorcycle.

12 Girls Admitted To Girl Reserves Club: After the regular monthly business meeting of the eighth grade Tru-Blu Girl Reserves
Friday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A.
building, center square, a spring recognition service was held when twelve girls were taken into the club.

The new members are: Mary Jane Wolff, Mary Jane Trew,
Mary Louise Spangler, Mary
Showers, Joan Miller, Ruth Bowers,
Dorothy Lackner, Dorothy Culp,
Betty Hertz, Ola Dean Moyer,
Helen Mary Hess and Helen Irene

47 Retail Beer Licenses Asked In Adams County: Proprietors of 41 business places in Adams county and six clubs or fraternal organizations have filed applications for retail beer licenses with County Treasurer William I. Shields at the court house. Ten of the applicants are within the borough of Gettysburg.

Last year there were 38 businesses and six clubs licensed.

Six Lettermen Remain On Biglerville Baseball Squad: With only six lettermen left from last year prospects for the Biglerville high school baseball team are none too bright. Coach Cyrus Bucher has had his charges out for only five practices, cold weather keeping them in later than usual. Coach Bucher replaces Leslie Stock, now principal of the high school. Mr.
Stock had coached at the local institution nine years.

The pitching staff is unusually strong this year. Nelson Kane, probably the best of the group;
Paul Crum, Carl Taylor, Chester Ogden, and Robert Oyler should form an effective mound crew. Behind the bat Fred McCauslin, Hugh Brinsman, Fred Black and Cornelius Starner have been working out.
Tom Enck and Carl Taylor are the leading candidates for first base. Donald Peters may give them much competition.

Pick Mary Queen At Arendtsville:
Miss Ethel Tuckey, near Wenks-ville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Wilbur Tuckey, was elected Mary Queen by the students of the Arendtsville vocational high school
Tuesday and will preside over the May Day festivities that will be held early next month. Miss Tuckey is a member of the senior class
at the school.

Announcement also has been made of the names of the eight attendants to the queen. They will be Seniors Mildred Taylor and Mary Martz; Juniors, Louise Mc-Dannell and Betty Thomas; sophomores, Geraldine Baltzley and Jane Allison and freshmen, Cecelia
Myers and Doris Taylor.

18 Youths Are Building Path At Cashtown: Eighteen youths began work Tuesday on the first NYA footpath building project to be undertaken in Adams county between Cashtown and the Franklin township consolidated school building. Clyde L. Bream, NYA project head, is directing the work which is being done with the Franklin township road supervisors as the official sponsors of the project.

The path will be four feet wide
when completed and will stretch along the Lincoln highway for a distance of 1,336 feet, affording a safe path for consolidated school children who are now forced to walk along the edge of the Lincoln

Today's Talk

MEETING OTHERS
I do not believe we pay enough attention to the influences that surround us, especially the influence that our closest friends and companions have over us. Unconsciously we absorb this influence.
Largely we are other made!

I am reminded of this other influence as I read in the obituary columns of my newspaper the names of those I have known and loved. Why are so many of these taken away at such a limited age?
When my mother died the whole of life seemed to crumble about me. Why was she taken so young?
Why anyway? She who never let up in pace her kindly deeds, her whole sacrifices. With her gone the nearly ones knew they had lost a friend, the like of whom they would never again know.

This individual influence came to me in a striking manner the past week as I sat in the office of the beloved Bishop Sheen and listened to his kindly and inspiring words. Here was a man who talks to millions over the radio and TV, his entire life devoted to helping others. In no way could a man be happier. Over the door to his office are those familiar words:
"God Love You." There could not be a better man to utter such a thought, because it all comes back to him from those who have been blessed by him, and by God Himself.

I wish I could adequately thank all those who have been so helpful to me, and who have inspired me to try and prove worthy of their kindly encouragement. To be wealthy in material things cannot for a moment be compared to being influential for good! The greatest thing that any of us can take to our grave with us is the love that we lived to give away.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Decision"
Projected, 1957, by the George Matthew Adams Service.

Just Folks

FRIENDSHIP
I've watched them grow from boys
to men,
But down the years I've never known.

A lad to be successful when
He had to stand to life alone.

No one can overcome the odds
Without a friendly helpful hand.
Somewhere along the road he plods,
Youth needs a man to understand.

Who thinks to live his life alone Must meet, no matter where he fares,
The faith and hope just like his own.

Another on the sideline shares.
We are a part of all we know.
Success and failure touch men
all;
They thrill with pride when strength we show
And they are saddened when we fall.

Lawler Says New Engineers Big Aid To Highway Program

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Recruitment of highway engineers is bringing new talent into state employment and will benefit Pennsylvania's sweeping roadbuilding program,
State Highways Secretary Joseph
Lawler says.

Some 45 new men hired in the last two months will form a part of the highways department's
"key technical personnel," Lawler
said in an interview here yesterday.

The roads secretary was here
for a conference with Bertrand D.
Tallamy, federal highway administrator. He won a new promise from Tallamy that a final decision will be made soon on whether to include the proposed Keystone Shortway route in the federal roadbuilding program under which
the federal government pays 90
per cent of the construction cost.
Lawler said that within about two weeks the state will submit the new cost and traffic data requested by the U. S. Bureau of Roads, Tallamy added.

"When we receive the report
we will immediately go to work
and make a final decision," Tallamy said. He said the report
will be made soon on whether to
include the proposed Keystone Shortway route in the federal
roadbuilding program under which
the federal government pays 90
per cent of the construction cost.

He asserted that on the contrary the department is doing everything it can to attract skilled men, with no consideration given to political affiliation.

Highway engineers are being recruited wherever possible, Lawler said, with recruiting going on among experienced engineers as well as young college graduates.

Will Do Planning
These men will be needed, he said, to do the planning for highway mileage allotted Pennsylvania
under the new federal 35 billion dollar roadbuilding program. One of the chief projects under the federal aid program in Pennsylvania would be the Keystone Shortway, to run from Sharon to Stroudsburg.

Lawler and other Pennsylvanians on hand for yesterday's meeting with Tallamy expressed surprise over the federal request for new cost data on the Shortway,
for an alternate route which would branch off the Shortway
line in the Lock Haven area, coming east, and head toward Port Jervis, N. Y.

Such a deviation could form a connecting link with lower New England rather than having New York City as the Shortway terminus.

Tallamy said this proposal was suggested by bureau of roads engineers who "thought it should be looked into before a final decision is made."

Lawler and his companions at the conference, Reps. Flood (D-Pa.) and Waller (D-Pa.), said the state administration is remaining firm in its adherence to the original Shortway route.

One Killed, 25 Injured When Passenger Train Rams Empties

SECAUCUS, N. J. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Rail Road passenger train smashed into a row of eight empty mail cars here last night, killing the train's engineer and injuring more than 25 passengers.
The dead engineer was identifi-fied as Clair E. Cochran, 58, of Lalor. The injured, including two trainmen, were taken to New York hospitals.

The accident occurred at about 11 p.m. shortly after the six-car passenger train emerged from the Hudson River Tunnel. The electrically powered train was bound from New York City to New Brunswick with 156 passengers aboard.

The eight-car "deadhead" was struck by the train and two of its cars derailed.

Second Mishap
Soon after the original accident,
the 11:15 p.m. evening Keystone bound from Washington to New York roared past the scene and brushed against one of the derailed mail cars.

Although there were no injuries reported, the Keystone was brought to an emergency stop and its seven coaches towed back to Newark while its one Pullman car

Five cars of the electric train
were towed back to New York with the injured and wrecking crews began clearing the tracks.
Three passengers were hospitalized in New York. Others were treated and released.

Three Hours Delay
The railroad announced that service on the line was restored
at 5:19 this morning, when a mail train leaving Penn Station and bound to St. Louis passed the cleared scene of the wreckage.
Previous to that, trains had been delayed as much as three hours.

A spokesman said officials of the railroad had conducted an on-the-spot investigation of the accident,
and would continue their investigation at Penn Station today.
Det. Sgt. August Woeckner of Secaucus police said that the accident could have been far worse.
Woeckner said that if the empty mail train had been pushed another foot across the eastbound tracks, the Keystone from Washington would have hit it and there would have been a "major catastrophe."

PREMIER OF IRAN SEEKS CABINET

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Menouchehr
Eghbal, new pro-Western premier of Iran, worked today on picking a cabinet to help him end the 12-year-old state of martial law
and raise the standard of living.
The 49-year-old former university president was named by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi to replace Hussein Ala. Ala, 74, resigned because he said a younger and stronger man was needed to deal with bandits like those who ambushed three Americans and two Iranians in the desert of southeastern Iran March 24.

Eghbal said his first act as premier was to repeat Ala's orders to the police that they must capture the bandits who killed Mr.
and Mrs. Kevin Carroll of Issaquah, Wash., and Brewster Wilson of Portland, Ore. Carroll was an official of the U. S. Point Four program in Iran and Wilson represented the Near East Foundation.

The Interior Ministry has announced that local tribesmen armed by the government have killed Mrs. Carroll's slayer. The hunt is still on in southeast Iran
for the rest of the nomad gang, including their chief, Dadshah.

named at a subcommittee hearing as a man who belonged to a "Communist party student group at Cape Cod in 1939." Morris said Dr. Karl A. Wittfogel, a professor at Columbia University, had testified "it was obvious" Norman was a Communist at the time.

Canada Filed Protest

The Canadian government protested to the United States then and expressed surprise that Norman's name had been "dragged" into the hearings. The protest, delivered orally to the State Department, was reported in Ottawa to be one of the strongest exchanged between the two governments in recent years.

Canada's External Affairs Department declared Norman had been cleared of all Communist suspicion by a double security check and Pearson said the U.S. government had been told Norman was a "highly respected and trusted senior official."

Last month's report from the county student council meeting Wednesday morning at North Carroll High School were Mrs. Sanders, council advisor, Frances Groshon, Connie Arvin, Ann Little, Jackie Myers and Leonard Wantz.

Mrs. Neil Curtis, representative of the employment branch in the Navy Department at Washington, D.C., spoke to interested commercial students Wednesday.

Rain, Snow, Sleet Sweeps
State; Driving Hazardous

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Raw winter weather spread across Pennsylvania today.

The Weather Bureau reported that rain, snow, sleet and freezing rain, or a combination of them, covered every area of the state, making driving conditions hazardous.

The southern tier of counties and the extreme western area had mostly sleet and rain with a few areas of freezing rain.

There was mostly sleet or snow in the area from Bucks County to subcommittee was made public despite a State Department request that it not be given out because it might damage U.S. relations with Canada. Following the latest Canadian protest, the State Department had said allegations in the hearing transcript "do not represent opinions of the United States government."

The subcommittee made public testimony taken at closed hearings March 12 and March 21. Both hearings included testimony from John K. Emmerson, counselor of the U.S. Embassy at Beirut, Lebanon, that he had known Norman since 1949 and never had any reason to think the Canadian was a Communist.

However, Morris declared at the March 12 hearing that a security report of a U.S. government agency indicated Norman had been identified in 1940 as a Communist, and that there was other "information to the effect that he is a Communist."

in the Scranton area, with 2 inches in that city.

A warmer rain fell in the Pittsburgh vicinity most of the night. The heaviest fall was over the Ohio Valley. The rain there measured between an inch and an inch and a quarter.

Vernon Houghton, chief river forecaster for the U.S. Weather Bureau, said the heavy rain would cause minor flash flooding in the smaller tributaries.

Houghton said the Allegheny River below Franklin was rising slowly but was stationary above Franklin. He said a rapid rise in the lower Allegheny was forecast if the heavy rain keeps up.

The most serious threat of flooding, Houghton said, was in the Beaver Falls, New Castle and Sharon areas where the Beaver River flows. The area was pelted with heavy snow and rain last night.

CAULIFLOWER WITH CHEESE SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 large head cauliflower (about 2 1/4 pounds), 2 cups boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 cup grated (medium-fine) cheddar cheese (pack down in measuring), salt, paprika.

Method: Cut heavy green leaves and core from cauliflower; separate into small flowerets; soak in cold water about 1/2 hour; drain. Cook rapidly, covered, in boiling water and 1/2 teaspoon salt just until tender — about 8 minutes; drain, reserving 1 cup liquid. Make a white sauce of the butter, flour, 1 cup cauliflower liquid and milk; stir in cheese over low heat or off heat until melted. Add drained cauliflowerets and salt to taste. Reheat but do not boil. Sprinkle with paprika before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Note: This sauce is just thick enough and well flavored with cheese.

STATES SEEKING WAYS TO REDUCE ROAD DEATHS

By GLENN WOLF

Associated Press Staff Writer
The nation's highways yielded 40,000 traffic fatalities in 1956 and this April finds state legislatures studying proposed legislation in at least six fields to try to reduce the number.

An Associated Press survey showed nearly two thirds of the state governments casting about for new laws to help solve the accident problem.

Action to date ranges from the recommendation stage to newly signed statutes.

Various Plans

Legislation includes bills or requests to enlarge state police and law enforcement agencies, set down absolute speed limits, tighten driver licensing procedures, dole out stiffer penalties for drunken driver, institute state sponsored and financed driver education programs, install statewide motor vehicle testing procedures, and make liability insurance compulsory.

The survey showed 29 states considering legislation to put more state police on the highways. The Washington State Legislature was considering a six-million-dollar annual budget for its state patrol. With it, Acting Chief Roy Carlson proposed to add 150 commissioned officers to the patrol's present staff of 284.

In Illinois, fourth highest in the nation with 2,135 highway deaths last year, Gov. William G. Stratton asked for a doubling of the state police force of 600.

California Worst
Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California — where a record traffic death toll of 3,805, the worst in the nation, was counted in 1956 — asked for and got an additional 110 highway patrolmen on an urgency basis during January.

As a further effort to slow down the race on sprawling expressways and even on two-lane strips, at least 14 legislatures mulled over plans to put sharper teeth in their speed laws.

Some states were raising the minimum age for drivers, some were adding manpower to their driver testing bureaus, some were debating measures to require periodic re-examination of all drivers, and still others were tightening their licensing procedures by requiring more rigid mental and physical tests for new drivers and for the aged.

HUGE ESTATE LEFT TO PENN

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — The University of Pennsylvania has been bequeathed the bulk of the four million-dollar estate of the late Gustave C. Kuemmerle, Philadelphia furniture manufacturer.

Kuemmerle's gift is the largest by an individual in Penn's history. He is an alumnus of the class of 1898.

The will, filed for probate in Montgomery County Orphan's Court yesterday, provides personal bequests for a cousin, Robert H. Kraeger of Jenkintown, and members of Kuemmerle's household staff.

The remainder is to be used as Penn trustees see fit. Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, university president, said the money probably would go toward strengthening the faculty, additions to the university's physical plant, and increased aid to students.

Kuemmerle, who lived in Fort Washington, died March 23.

HOT PAINT USED
PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — New highway striping equipment which applies hot paint to highways is now being used by the Oregon State Highway Department.

LOVE HAS ITS UPS AND DOWNS

DETROIT (AP) — Love had its ups and downs—44 flights of stairs—for a bride-to-be and her fiancé. Dorothy McKenzie, 20, gets sick in elevators. Still, she had to appear at the final divorce hearing yesterday against her first husband James. The hearing was on the 19th floor of Detroit's City-County Building.

She and Ernest Thompson, 24, trudged up 13 flights of stairs, found they were in the wrong wing, and plodded down to the 10th floor where the could cross over to the other wing. At this point Dorothy gave up and sat down.

Ernest carried her up four more flights before she recovered enough to make the last five flights on her own. Circuit Judge Frank B. Ferguson granted the uncontested divorce. Then, free to marry Saturday, Dorothy and Ernest walked down 19 flights, where Dorothy still maintained: "Elevators and I don't agree."

all of near Emmitsburg, visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cheffield and family, Baltimore. They were accompanied home by Mrs. David Guise, who spent the past two weeks visiting with friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Refuses Parole To Aid Other Convicts

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — A young convict has refused parole from the state prison because he says he feels it is his mission to help 34 other convicts to a fair chance at a decent life.

John Corpiere, sentenced for forgery, could have returned to a good job in his home town of Las Cruces two months ago. But he turned down freedom to remain behind bars and continue teaching radio and television electronics to a group of inmates.

"These men wouldn't be here if they had ever had a chance to get an education and make a decent living," Corpiere said, waving a hand at his class. "If they can learn this electronics trade and get a class-B license from the Federal Communications Commission it means they will have their chance for the first time. And they won't be back here again."

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — You can ask the government for an audit of the wages collected for social security. A University of Michigan economist advises people to do so. Prof. Wilford J. Eltman pointed out that those who fail to have their credits checked periodically cannot have errors corrected after a three-year period without consent of their employer.

STATE ALLOTS ROAD MONEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania is listed among 11 states that have apportioned more than 75 per cent, but less than 100 cent, of their share of the one billion dollars the government is spending this year towards its multibillion dollar interstate highway network.

Bertram D. Tallamy, administrator of the federal highway program authorized last year by Congress, gave an informal progress report to the Senate Public Roads subcommittee Tuesday.

He said in general he believed "progress is good" on the interstate program. But he conceded there was a great discrepancy in progress among the states.

Then he gave a general breakdown on what the states are doing. He listed 10 as having obligated 100 per cent of their 1957 share of the federal appropriation, the 11 (plus the District of Columbia) which have obligated 75 to 100 per cent, nine which have obligated 50 to 75, eight (including Delaware) which have obligated 25 to 50 per cent, and 10 states which have obligated less than 25 per cent. New Jersey is the only state that has not obligated any of its allotment.

LEGION WOMEN
RANK FIFTH IN
STATE DISTRICT

The Francis X. Elder Post American Legion Auxiliary ranked fifth in membership in the Western Maryland District, it was announced at the monthly meeting Tuesday evening.

A letter was read from Curtis Topper, chairman of the Heart Fund Drive, thanking the Auxiliary for the $28 donation.

Poppies will be distributed at the May meeting. Girl Scouts will be asked to sell poppies for Memorial Day.

Ethel Gelwick was accepted into the membership.

Donald Tracey, a Junior at St. Joseph's High School, won the American Legion Essay contest, it was announced. Honorable mention went to Agnes Scott who placed second and Alice Scott placed third. The winning essay will be entered in the National American Legion Essay Contest.

The members voted to purchase frames for the Auxiliary citations to be hung in the Auxiliary meeting room. Ann Topper was appointed to purchase the frames.

Charlotte Sanders, Ruth Gillelan, Ann Topper, and Margaret Brown attended the district meeting at the Morris Frock Post Home in Hagerstown Sunday.

Those appointed to the refreshment committee for May were: Ann Shorb, Ann Topper and Kathleen Shorb.

FINNIGAN WILL BE QUIZZED IN
PARDONS PROBE

HARRISBURG — James A. Finnigan, commonwealth secretary and a member of the State Pardon Board, today was "anxious" to tell a legislative investigating committee what part he played in some board decisions.

Finnigan said in advance of today's public hearings by the six-member committee that his testimony would be "hard hitting and straight to the point."

The committee expected to call Finnigan to testify along with other persons who have been asked to answer questions dealing with pardon board action on Delaware County cases.

However, Chairman Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron) said Finnigan's testimony probably would deal with many other cases heard by the board.

Although Finnigan had not been called to the stand during the many weeks of public hearings by the committee probing board operations, he several times has injected loud denials of statements made by other witnesses while they were testifying.

Meanwhile, Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton) promised anew that he would continue to demand that all other cases be heard before the committee took up the case of three Bucks County slayers whose death sentences were commuted by Gov. Leader on unanimous recommendation of the board. It was this case that triggered the probe.

Cutbacks In Postal Service Ready Unless Money Is Given

By MARTHA COLE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department appeared ready today to go through with sharp cutbacks in postal services unless it gets the 47 million dollars it says it needs for the next three months.

The cutbacks would go into effect Saturday.

A House Appropriations subcommittee recommended yesterday that the department be given 17 millions.

Accused Of Sandbagging

There were indications that even this might have rocky going in the full Appropriations Committee. Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the full committee, accused the Post Office Department of an 11th-hour attempt "to sandbag us with threats."

The department's stand was backed by spokesmen for organizations of mailmen and postmasters, who protested that denial of the 47 millions would be "disastrous" to the mail service and to postal employees.

The Appropriations subcommittee acted yesterday after Postmaster General Summerfield reportedly told it he needed the extra funds to operate through June 30 because of heavier-than-expected expenses.

Asks Assurances

Summerfield was quoted as saying that unless he was given assurances that his department would get the 47 millions, he would have to order immediate drastic service reductions, including a halt in city and rural mail deliveries on Saturdays, and closing of post offices on Saturdays, discontinuance of money order sales and reduction of mail deliveries in city business districts to one a day.

Republicans on the nine-man subcommittee tried to get the full 47 millions, but they were outvoted by the Democratic majority, which settled on the 17-million-dollar figure. The committee Democrats contended that smaller amount was all that could be attributed to expenses the department could not have foreseen last year.

William C. Doherty, president of the National Assn. of Letter Carriers, said the 17 millions would only take care of automatic increases in salaries of postal workers. He described the situation as "disastrous and catastrophic."

MOTHER OF 3 IS FATALLY HURT

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP)—The mother of three young boys fell under the wheels of a truck and was dragged eight feet to her death yesterday.

Mrs. Edna Mannon, about 32, of Bristol Twp., was killed as her son, five-year-old Ronald, who had been walking along a highway with her, looked on in horror.

The truck was driven by Adam Witkoski, 40, of Bristol Twp. It had stopped for a traffic light in an underpass beneath the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks at the intersection of Routes 13 and 413.

The Rev. Edward G. Yeomans, pastor of the Bristol Presbyterian church was driving behind the truck. He told police Mrs. Mannon appeared to leap off the footwalk and fall under the truck's rear wheels.

P. O. TESTS NEW EXPERIMENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Post Office Department experiment to free district managers from paper work to devote more time to field investigations will be tried out in Central and Western Pennsylvania, beginning Saturday.

The plan was announced here yesterday.

It involves consolidating separate district operations offices and district transportation offices at Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Erie into two all-inclusive "postal district offices" in Pittsburgh and Harrisburg. Erie's district operations office will be temporarily suspended but field service personnel will be maintained in that city.

The department said there would be no loss of jobs although there will be some personnel shifts.

Postmaster General Summerfield said that under the "Pennsylvania Pilot Plan" district managers would be freed of some of their paper work. He said they would be expected to get out into post offices "and solve such problems as where new mail routes may be established, how collections and dispatches of mail can be improved, how delays in mail can be eliminated, and what to do about transportation bottlenecks."

The Pittsburgh postal district office will serve more than a score of Western Pennsylvania counties, having 898 post offices.

Green Asks Trial Set For Harrisburg

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Rep. William J. Green (D-Pa.), chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic city committee, who has been accused of conspiracy in the construction of the 33-million-dollar Army Signal Corps depot at Tobyhanna, wants to be tried in the federal district court at Harrisburg, rather than in Scranton.

Green, in a petition presented by his attorneys yesterday, said that his congressional and political duties require him to spend considerable time in Washington and Philadelphia and that train service between those cities and Scranton is poor, whereas Harrisburg is more readily accessible.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sam Rayburn, 75-year-old speaker of the House and the most powerful Democrat there, sounds like a man getting impatient with President Eisenhower.

It may be because of Eisenhower's lack of strong leadership in handling his own House Republicans. Twice in a week Rayburn has snapped out rebuffs to statements by the President.

In the House this past week the Democratic leadership and Northern Democrats have been fighting for Eisenhower against a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats bent on chopping the President's 72-billion-dollar budget to pieces.

Yesterday Eisenhower — asked at his news conference about chances for a tax cut in the future — said he certainly hopes there can be one before the end of his second term but he wouldn't speculate when.

Rayburn Balks Ike's Plans
Shortly afterwards Rayburn told reporters: "If there's a tax cut, the Congress will make it, and this is a Democratic Congress."

Last week Rayburn threw cold water on Eisenhower's idea for a constitutional amendment to spell out procedure for replacing a disabled president with a vice president. Eisenhower called Rayburn and other congressional leaders to the White House to suggest it.

Very soon afterwards Rayburn, not considered an admirer of Vice President Nixon, told reporters: "I don't think much of it. We've got along for 188 years and I don't think many bad things have happened."

The Republicans in the House began their budget-cutting rampage last week and in the midst of it Eisenhower, before taking off for a weekend at Gettysburg, sent two of his aides to see Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana.

Wants "Selectivity"
Halleck, one of the House Republican leaders, later said Eisenhower wanted some selectivity in the budget-cutting. Halleck himself apparently doesn't think Eisenhower has shown much leadership in trying to keep his Republicans in line.

He told reporters Eisenhower "has really got to bear down" when the House later begins considering money for foreign aid and defense.

In this past week the Republican-Southern Democratic coalition put through 17 amendments which trimmed 68 million dollars more than a committee had recommended from Eisenhower's requests for money for the Departments of Labor and Welfare and the National Labor Relations Board.

Those cuts are not final. The House votes on them again in roll calls which put the members on record.

More than 350,000 migratory farm workers depend on automotive transportation to journey over the country in pursuit of their occupation.

Return Paul Cook To Insane Hospital

BEAVER, Pa. (AP)—Paul Cook, who spent 15 years in the Farview State Hospital for the Criminal Insane in the slaying of his parents and a sister, has been ordered re-committed to the institution.

Judge Morgan H. Sohn yesterday directed Cook's return to Farview after a sanity commission reported he was "unpredictable and not stable."

Cook was released last August after being declared sane and was returned to Beaver to stand trial in the 1939 killings. However, the trial was delayed pending the outcome of the sanity report.

Cook and five other Farview inmates escaped in October, 1955. He was returned to the hospital in March, 1956, after his capture in St. Louis.

Probe Stirs Interest In Airing Financial Reports From Unions

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — For a decade, most labor unions have been required to file annual financial reports with the government. In all that time only about 200 citizens have ever seen them.

Reports from some 40,000 national and local unions are promptly locked away in Labor Department vaults on receipt.

Congress seems to have planned things that way in writing the Taft-Hartley law in 1947. Many legislators now feel that was a mistake which Congress should correct quickly.

Some Proposals
Recent disclosures by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee of alleged misuse of large sums of union money have brought renewed interest in the problem.

Numerous legislators have recommended that (1) the Labor Department records of union financial data should be opened to everyone, and (2) Congress should enact a new law requiring similar data to be filed with the government and made public regarding multibillion-dollar welfare funds.

But 10 years ago in enacting the Taft-Hartley Act Congress thought differently. It included no provision for filing welfare fund data at all. It required unions using services of the National Labor Relations Board to file the annual union treasury statements, but made no provision for making them public.

Taft's Position
The late Republican leader, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, said, "Such reports are not open to the public any more than corporation reports are open to the public."

Taft said that in addition to "proper government officials," union members should be permitted to see their own union's reports, and the Labor Department has allowed that. But in 10 years only 200 union members have availed themselves of the privilege.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell was inclined some time ago to Taft's notion that the union data was

Littlestown S. S. LEADERS HOLD MEETING

The teachers, their assistants and secretaries of the entire Sunday School of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church was held on Monday evening in the church social hall. Dr. William W. Seibert, general superintendent of the Sunday School, presided. The session opened with prayer in unison.

It was reported that 50 additional chairs had been ordered for use in the Junior Department. Announcement was made that Mrs. Samuel A. Harnish will continue as superintendent of the Home Department. The group discussed the annual summer church picnic and a committee was appointed to be in charge of general arrangements. Mrs. Donald C. Feiser, children's division leader, announced that a pamphlet file of supplementary material for use by the teachers has been started. The group briefly discussed the Easter and Children's Day programs by the Children's Division, when each department will be in charge of a portion of the services.

The annual Cancer Crusade for funds will be conducted in the near future in Germany Twp., and the township drive chairman, Mrs. William J. Lippy, has announced the following drive solicitors: Mrs. Harry Weisel, Mrs. Henry Barnes, Mrs.

primarily the business of a union and its members. More recently, he has said he would like to see the data under his custody made public. He further wants power to investigate for fraudulent filing of data.

For several years now both Mitchell and President Eisenhower have been urging Congress to require disclosure of welfare fund data.

Linde Air Products Signs 2-Year Pact

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Linde Air Products Co., its production curtailed by a two-month strike at five plants in four states, yesterday signed a two-year pact with two non-union plants.

The agreement, covering 133 workers in plants at nearby Mifflin and Corliss, was reached with the International Chemical Workers Union.

It does not affect contract disputes with the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union in plants at Kittanning and Essington, Pa., where the union is on strike.

Tonawanda, N.Y., Youngstown, Ohio and Moundsville, W. Va.

The new contract gave workers at Mifflin and Corliss a 12-cent hourly pay increase effective today, an eighth paid holiday and premium pay for holiday and Sunday work. It has a one-year wage re-opening clause. Present wage scales were not disclosed.

Try topping broiled steak (just before serving) with dollops of butter mixed with lemon juice and minced parsley.

You can add half a cup of finely diced cooked ham to a standard (two cups of flour) muffin recipe. Serve with eggs, of course.
